

2014 Transitional Care

Empowering nurses to deliver better outcomes for young people who require long term health care

Dorothy House Hospice Care To open access for young people living with life-limiting illness at an earlier age to enable better transition into adult palliative care services.	£18,822
Edinburgh Napier University, Faculty of Life Health and Social Sciences Investigation of nurse-led care to enable transition from child to adult services for people with learning disabilities.	£195,267
Haemnet Nurse-led initiative to improve transition for young people with bleeding disorders by reviewing current practice, agreeing outcome measures, delivering and evaluating a patient-led development programme	£173,369
Keycomm, Speech and Language Therapy Department NHS Lothian To develop a communication transition team for young people with severe communication impairment and long term conditions leaving school.	£23,069
Lancashire Care NHS Foundation Trust To improve transitions for young people with mental health problems between child and adult; inpatient and community mental health services.	£50,000
Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust To lead the development of Transition Services in liaison with the multi-professionals in Children and Adult services, and in partnership with young people.	£204,990
NHS Lothian Child and Adolescent Mental Health Service and BEAT To provide online support for young people with an eating disorder experiencing a transition, and develop healthcare professional online training on best practice.	£163,000
North West Surrey Clinical Commissioning Group To provide a nurse-led transformational service to support young people to manage their diabetes during transition from children to adult services.	£188,840
Royal Manchester Children's Hospital To develop, implement and evaluate a structured pathway for transition from paediatric to adult rheumatology, ensuring high quality, coordinated health care that is patient-centred, age appropriate as well as encouraging a young person's independence.	£30,000
Sheffield Teaching Hospitals Foundation Trust WICKED: an education course developed with and for young people with type 1 diabetes.	£11,398
Walton Centre NHS Foundation Trust To develop a collaborative transition pathway for young people with epilepsy and their families, to explore knowledge transition and inform development of an informational intervention.	£93,000
Total Awarded	£1,151,755