

2014 Young Minds

Empowering nurses to deliver better outcomes for young people with mental health problems in the community or a hospital setting

2gether Foundation Trust A nurse-led project delivering skills training to nurses across three organisations with the aim of helping young people to cope with 'Deliberate Self-harm (DSH) issues.	£36,967
Best Beginnings To develop evidence-based perinatal mental health film resources across the UK, in partnership with young parents, nursing organisations and the voluntary sector.	£249,446
Compass Wellbeing CIC A training and transformational change programme to enable school nursing teams to support and enhance mental health and emotional wellbeing in children and young people.	£150,000
East London Foundation Trust Nurse led outreach service for Looked After Children (LAC) and their carers to prevent placement breakdown and support transition for young people entering and leaving care.	£140,819
Great Ormond Street Hospital NHS Foundation Trust To develop an evidence-based AHP/nurse-led intervention to address unmet mental health needs in children and young people with 22q11.2 deletion syndrome.	£46,347
NHS Fife Child & Adolescent Mental Health Service, Intensive Therapy Service The development of a Centralised Therapeutic Space to enhance the current care provided by the NHS Fife CAMHS Intensive Therapy Service (ITS) for young people with severe and complex mental health difficulties.	£27,875
Shropshire Community Health NHS Trust Funding will support training of Community School Nurses in management of self harm and stress in children and young people.	£10,000
South Essex Partnership NHS Trust The provision of a learning disability nurse to provide outreach support to generic CAMHS teams to improve quality, communication and equity of service for children and families.	£50,000
Surrey and Borders Partnership NHS Trust 'My Journey': a mobile health app for first episode of psychosis: empowering young people to have more choice and control over their health and wellbeing.	£40,000
University of Nottingham School of Health Sciences 'Our care through our eyes': A service-user co-produced education programme for acute hospital nurses to improve the care of children and young people who self-harm.	£49,730
Sub total	£801,184