

Men's Health

Cancer Focus Northern Ireland (CFNI) Providing health-checks and a programme of exercise, nutrition and cookery, music and social interaction for men diagnosed with prostate cancer and managed with Active Surveillance.	£45,678
Edinburgh Napier University To examine the reasons why men living with at least one long-term condition do not participate in a physical activity programme (Active Options) designed to support their physical recovery and psycho-social wellbeing.	£190,367
European Men's Health Forum (EMHF) Men, Work and Cancer: Developing a nurse-led action plan on post-cancer diagnosis self-care and self-management support for men in paid employment.	£49,750
King's College Hospital NHS Foundation Trust Tackling mental health problems in erectile dysfunction; and erectile dysfunction in men with mental health problems.	£198,677
Norfolk and Suffolk NHS Foundation Trust To fund and evaluate a nurse-led intervention to improve the mental well-being of men and boys through training, awareness-raising and service development.	£118,354
Public Health England To train and support 28 Nursing Physical Activity Clinical Champions to up-skill 12,000 nurses nationally to motivate men to be more physically active.	£198,354
Queen's University Belfast - South Eastern Trust A nurse-led initiative to improve the sexual health of male offenders within Northern Ireland's Prison System.	£44,830
The Queen's Nursing Institute To deliver a Fund for Innovation and Leadership (FIL) programme enabling community and primary care nurses to develop new approaches that focus specifically on men's health.	£105,209