

Complex Needs in Primary Care 2019

Alder Hey NHS Foundation Trust Specialist nurse led, multi-disciplinary, coordinated, person centred and good quality bespoke transition planning sessions hosted in a familiar school setting, for children and young people with complex neuro-disabilities	76,558
Birmingham University Improving person-centred nurse-led care for primary care patients with progressive multimorbid illness	99,860
Bournemouth University People who sleep in the open air have complex needs. This co-produced technological solution will support rough sleepers to self-care by locating and accessing services.	51,000
King's College London and Lambeth Diabetes Intermediate Care Team The aim of this project is to develop a diabetes nurse led integrated model of care for people with severe mental illness and diabetes.	98,681
London South Bank University To evaluate the feasibility of using smartphone technology for home urine testing in people with diabetes and/or chronic kidney disease in East London.	44,465
Queen's University Belfast Development of a Digital Intervention to Improve Oral Health for Older People Living with Complex Needs in the Community	70,883
Shooting Star Children's Hospice Services and Kingston University and St George's University London Children's hospice/university collaborative simulation teaching programme - empowering a coordinated approach by primary care nurses caring for children with complex and palliative care needs	30,000
Spina Bifida Hydrocephalus Scotland (SBH Scotland) Co-producing interactive engagement tools and crafting training content to support transition of young people with complex needs in community settings	57,781
St Christopher's Hospice Multi professional, wrap-around care facilitating home-based end of life care for people at risk of admission to hospital/hospice who wish to remain at home	82,000
St John Ambulance Empowering nurses in Hastings to help homeless people become autonomous in their own care and that of others.	28,500
The Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust A realist and economic evaluation of care in leg ulceration	31,953

The Queen's Nursing Institute  Supporting nurses working in community and primary care environments to develop innovative approaches, enabling people with complex needs to avoid unplanned hospital admission.	102,662
The Queen's Nursing Institute Scotland  QNIS will help create a network of 'Scotland's Community Nurses at the Deep End' to improve understanding and provision of primary care for people with complex needs in very deprived places. It will empower these nurses and amplify their voices.	91,400