

Chronic Respiratory Diseases 2023
C3 Collaborating for Health To understand the prevalence of smoking in nurses, explore the barriers to smoking cessation for nurses who smoke, and provide them with smoking cessation support.	£99,913
Cwm Taf Morgannwg University Health Board (CTM UHB) Co-producing & pilot testing a behaviourally-informed intervention to empower nurses to address smoking & promote smoking cessation with hospital patients in Wales (The 'ThinkQuit' Study).	£97,667
Edinburgh Napier University Co-creation of a CPD Toolkit to enable nursing students acquire the skills and knowledge to support individuals with learning disabilities to self-manage respiratory health issues.	£68,270
Institute of Health Visiting (iHV) Developing health visiting respiratory health ambassadors – leading prevention and early intervention for respiratory disease in babies and very young children.	£80,482
Lancashire and South Cumbria NHS Foundation Trust Addressing the inequalities in the respiratory health of people with learning disabilities in Lancashire from minority ethnic backgrounds, through innovative ways of working and collaboration.	£97,678
Manchester University Foundation NHS Trust To deliver a project entitled "An exploration of experiences and support needs of young adults with severe and uncontrolled asthma".	£64,819
Northern Care Alliance NHS Foundation Trust Nurse-led intervention to reduce the risk of serious cardiovascular (CV) events in patients with COPD through a proactive personalised risk modification programme.	£50,772
Queen's University Belfast Exploring the impact of an online nurse-led, high-impact, compassionate Mindful rEsilience pRogram for adult patients with idiopathiC pUlmonaRY fibrosis: The MERCURY Study.	£94,371
Stockton PCN A Respiratory Outreach Programme to target children and young people who are accessing acute care for asthma or not being seen in traditional care settings.	£63,850
Southampton University To optimise and evaluate a nurse-led respiratory training package aiming to increase knowledge and confidence for practice nurses caring for people with chronic respiratory disease.	£57,115